MRS. ROSE INDICTED

Grand Jury at Vanceburg Re-Opens Epworth Poison Case

LEDGER readers will remember the circumstances of the death at Epworth last October of Mr. John Rose, in which his wife was later accused of poisoning him.

At the time of Mr. Rose's death there was every reason to believe that he had been foully dealt with, and an effort was made to throw the crime on the shoulders of his wife and Albert Harry, who had been raised by her.

The parties were arrested and taken to Vanceburg, but at a subsequent sitting the Grand Jury failed to return any indictment against them.

At Vanceburg yesterday, however, the Grand Jury now in session re-opened the case and immediately returned an indictment against both Mrs. Rose and Harry.

The former, who by the way was recently married to Joseph Rayburn, was put under arrest last night at her home at Epworth.

Harry is not now in the state.

IMPORTANT MATTER

But When Will the Millennium Come to Maysville?

At the meeting of the City Council Monday night an important matter was taken up after the reporters had taken their departure.

It had reference to the construction of a brick street.

Some two months ago a petition, signed by merchants of Second street, requesting that some action looking to the improvement of the main thoroughfare of the city be taken, was read and favorably received and there it has since rested.

At Monday night's meeting the subject was revived and during the discussion it was stated that business men, principally property holders, were willing and anxious to pay their pro rata for the building of a brick street from Market to Sutton streets.

It was also stated that the Street Car Company stood ready to brick their franchise along said street as soon as the improvement was once started.

On motion the Chair appointed a Committee consisting of Robert Ficklin, A. Clooney and John Eitel, who were instructed to further consult with the property owners and inquire as to the probable cost and other details and report their findings at the next regular meeting of Council.

There is not a first-class street in the city of Maysville, and there will come a time when a beginning in that line will have to be made.

Second is the most important and traveled street in the city, and in its present condition it is nothing more than a loblolly and a disgrace to the municipality.

The amount that is being uselessly expended in the way of gutters, crossings, repairs would go far towards paying for an up-to-date street. If once started in the right direction, the good results therefrom will be so apparent that everybody will approve of the step taken.

Mrs. Hattie Hutton died suddenly a few days ago at her home at Covadale, aged 52.

Mr. R. H. Wallace of East Second street received word yesterday morning of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Peter Wallace, at Manchester. Deceased was about 60 years of age and had been in ill health for a long time. Her husband survives. Mrs. Charles Wedding, her niece, had been at her bedside for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and daughter, Miss May, left last afternoon for Manchester to attend the funeral.

THERE'LL be a funeral in the Sixth Ward before long, and the leader of the procession will be one of the small boys who jumps on the streetcars; but his parents will have to pay for that ride.

At Bellevue a few days ago a boy fell off the C. and O. Bridge and broke both ankles. When will the pesky Railway Company be forced to build bridges that the boys can't fall off—or cars that they can't jump on?

THERE'S a fight on in the Government Printing Office at Washington; and it's more than likely that some one will be made Public Printer who doesn't know a Long Primer Hair Space from the Left Hind Leg of a Mule.

THE Managers of the Kentucky State Fair at Lexington ought to make it a "howling success." They ask everybody to do about everything for them for nothing, or next to nothing, while they say that "being merely trustees of a state fund," they have no right to give anybody a free ticket. What—well, oh, yes; "Is it hot enough for you?"

THERE is a Republican hen on and The Mercury and Advocate say she will hatch today. THE MAYSVILLE LEDGER, a black Republican sheet, says when she hatches the chick will be a "Heller." We know better than that. If the hen hatches the chick will be a poor, pitiful, political damphool.—Cartist Democrat.

Not on your tintype, Doctor; THE LEDGER never got off such a rotten joke as that. Besides, it never encroaches on the patent rights of others. "Heller" belongs exclusively to The Democrat's vocabulary.

THERE are indications that all is not lovely in the Civil Service family in the Postoffice. What is needed there is one or two "Clerks," and fewer "political pensioners."

THE Louisville Times deserves credit for the suggestion that the Legislature of Kentucky purchase the Lincoln Farm and preserve it as a park. It would be a step in the right direction; but so long as Kentucky Legislatures refuse an appropriation to restore the headless statue of HENRY CLAY, while voting $20,000 for a statue of a political buccaneer, there seems little hope for a tribute to LINCOLN.

Political Pickings

KENTUCKY'S PECULIAR INSTITUTION.

New York Sun.

Forgetting that interstate comity which demands that full faith and credit be given by one state to the great men of another state, The Memphis Commercial-Appeal makes faces at a neighboring orator, statesman and hero: "The people of Kentucky seem to be tired of Joe Blackburn, and well they may be. Blackburn is a fluent talker, a fire-eater and a man of limited intellectual caliber."

Tired of Joe Blackburn? Tired of the Grand Old Man of Versailles? If Kentucky could show herself so ungrateful for a time honored institution we might have to believe her honored poet sang truth in the far resounding lines—

"Politics are the damndest, In Kentucky."

How can the people of Kentucky be tired of the Hon. Joseph Clay Stiles Blackburn? He is not tired of them. They have kept him in office most of the time for a generation. If he went from the Senate in 1897 'twas but to return in 1901. They count not well who think they're going to leave him out in 1907.

In Joe Blackburn's own immortal words, "He that dallies is a dastard and he that doubts is damned." Kentucky does not breed doubters and dalliers.

As to Mr. Blackburn's fluency. His word output for a year is about one-sixteen-thousandth of the Hon. Bob Taylor's for a week. If Mr. Blackburn eats fire occasionally, he never lets it spoil on his stomach. His intellectual caliber may be some diameters less than that of the Hon. John Wesley Gaines, "that monumental pile of brains," but it will compare very favorably with that of Tennessee's wee, modest, crimson-tipped flower, the Hon. Edward Ward Carmack.

The Hon. Joe Blackburn represents the immutable, essential and fundamental principles of Democracy as vaguely, vociferously and truly as anybody can until somebody finds out what they are.

President Roosevelt has demanded the resignation of Public Printer F. W. Palmer, to take effect on September 15th.

MASS OF SORES

Awful Suffering of Little Boy from an Itching Humour

CURED BY CUTICURA

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Unaffected

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did no good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. Now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is today." ROBERT WATTAM, 4922 Center Ave., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30, 1897.

SIX YEARS LATER

Mr. Wattam writes "Your letter of the 21st in regard to the case of my little boy at hand. I am truly thankful to say that the cure effected by the Cuticura Remedies has been a most thorough and successful cure to date." Chicago, Feb. 23, 1903.

QThe greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. QBut why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectation in the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup. QWe know by the experience of over thirty-five years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. Reports from headquarters indicate another rise at hand. The volume will not be great enough, however, to allow the shipment of coal. The water is coming out of the Kanawha District and will not touch the headwaters of either the Allegheny or Monongahela rivers.

An agitation for the establishment of ice piers in and about the Cincinnati harbor has been taken up by the Chamber of Commerce. This action was urged in a numerous signed petition, asking for an investigation as to the exact needs in this line. Rivermen estimate that $400,000 damage resulted to floating property in Cincinnati last winter, owing to the lack of protection against ice gorges.

The United States Lighthouse Tender Goldenrod left Cincinnati Wednesday on her annual inspection trip of the beacon lights along the Ohio river. The boat will go as far up the river as possible and supply all the stations with oils and other supplies, pay off the tenders and then return to Cincinnati, her home port, for a replenishment of supplies, and leave for the lower rivers and tributaries for the same purpose. The trip up the river will consume about four weeks. The trip to the lower river and tributaries consumes about nine weeks and covers about nineteen hundred miles of waterways. The district covered by the Goldenrod is known officially as the Fourteenth District, and covers the entire length of the Ohio and its tributaries from Cairo to Pittsburgh.

WILL YOU HELP?

A Worthy Young Lad Wants to Buy an Artificial Limb

Master John D. Becraft, a sprightly lad of Aberdeen, lost his right leg by bloodpoison some time ago, and is now trying to secure enough money to buy an artificial one.

He is a manly little fellow, worthy of assistance, and his appeal should meet hearty response. A trifle from each will accomplish the result.

Donations may be left at The Ledger Office, and all sums, however small, will be gratefully accepted.

Churches, schools, good roads and plenty of work and a good will to pitch in and do it are all very good marks of the intelligent citizen. What's the matter with Lewis county's road system?

We never saw a notice of any description about the Petersville Reunion, and if Comrade Degman failed to attend we will never know there was a reunion held there. If Charley attended, he will be apt to write 'er up for THE LEDGER.

Mrs. A. S. Cole went to Wapella and Hayworth, Ill., Friday, to visit her two daughters, Mrs. Dee Bell and Mrs. Annie Himes, and her sister, Mrs. Bell, who has been sick for some time. She will remain several weeks.

Walter Million was solving the mysteries of the Jr. O. U. A. M. in Lodge No. 107 at Wallingford last Saturday night. We believe several more intend following his example before many Saturday nights roll around.

Ira Lightner started to Woodford county last week. He missed the train he intended going on, so he came back home and gave up the idea of going.

Misses Callie Christman and Edna Doyle accompanied Miss Nettie Christman to Big Run Sunday, where the latter returns to her school, after a visit to her mother here.

Mrs. Lula Gilkison stepped on a nail some few days ago and it ran entirely through her foot. She has had quite a severe time trying to keep lockjaw from taking place from the effects of the nail.

This little town would be a fine location for some good first class physician that wanted lots of practice. Our closest Doctors are at Burtonville and 'Carmel and it keeps the 'phones busy calling them up during the summer.

A railroad inspector was here last week looking about the R. F. D. Route here to see if the route could be extended to Mt. Carmel and then back via of Beechburg to Wallingford, there make connection with the out-going trains at Flemingsburg. Haven't learned his decision yet.

This little village was thrown into quite an excitement over the fire at Flemingsburg last week. Our teachers were most all eye witnesses of the fire. We are sorry to know of the loss to our fellow citizens and sorry also to learn that both our county papers' press were lost. Nevertheless, we trust they can soon be able to make their reappearance.

"JIM CROW" CAR

Dover Marshal Assists C. and O. Conductor to Enforce Rules

Since the C. and O. Railway Company was fined $500 in Bracken county for violating the "Jim Crow" car law, the Conductors and trainmen have been especially careful to comply with its requirements.

Tuesday morning, says The Dover News, a colored Minister, said to have been from Flemingsburg, four colored women and three children boarded the train at Maysville. They refused to ride in the car provided for them, but persisted in riding with the white people.

They paid no attention to the Conductor's orders, and he telegraphed ahead for Marshal Ambrose to meet the train at Dover.

When the train took the siding there Marshal Ambrose went aboard and commanded the party to vamoose. They did not stand on the order of going but went at once to the car they should have boarded in the first place.

Marshal Ambrose proposed to place the whole party under arrest if they had hesitated to obey his orders.

Maysville Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Maysville given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:

M. C. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and I noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
